

We know it's only September, but let's talk about camp! We are looking forward to a great season of camp prep, and ultimately an incredible summer at Student Life Camp.

This month you have one job (well, one camp prep job): Become familiar with Student Life's financial policy updates.

Grab some coffee and press play! Jared will explain what to expect for 2023, but more importantly, he'll explain the heart behind these changes and the positive impact we believe they will have on your camp experience.

VERY IMPORTANT

Here is a snapshot of the financial policy updates for camp: (It is important to watch the video in full to hear Jared explain these changes)

- January 31: $75 non-refundable and non-transferable deposit due per person
- May 1: Additional $75 per person cancellation fee for any registrations cancelled after this date

Following this newsletter, you will receive a 2023 financial statement reflecting your current registration information. Please contact us if you need to make any changes.

Our team is here to help answer ALL of your questions!
