

Camp is coming! Many of you will be arriving for your first day of camp in less than 2 weeks. We are READY!

Let's get into our last monthly newsletter before the summer begins.

COME PREPARED

The following camp prep items are things you can be working on or distributing right now. Review each one to ensure you're prepared for camp!

PARTICIPANT LISTS

Participant Lists are due 14 days before your camp (35 days for Flex groups). You can begin working on this now! If you need a refresher on how to use this document, check out this link.

Also, don't miss our Video Library on Step 1 of the Prep Center! This is where our team answers your questions about things like Squads, Life Groups, Check-In Day and more.

WAIVERS

Don't forget that each parent or guardian will need your group's unique REG ID in order to complete the Waiver and Release form. You can find that listed below, or on any of your camp statements.

YOUR REG ID:

Also, don't miss that we have a handy document on Step 2 of the Prep Center that allows you to share this 5-digit code easily with your group!

LIFE GROUP LEADER GUIDE

The Life Group Leader guide for camp is available to you right now on Step 3 of the Prep Center! We encourage you to download the guide now and share it with your Life Group Leaders so they can begin preparing for their role at camp. Provide enough copies for every Life Group Leader in your group to have their own copy at camp.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP

While this might be your final newsletter for this camp season, we're not leaving you hanging when it comes to camp communication. Around 3 weeks before your camp begins, you'll hear from your designated Camp Support Coordinator. This person is dedicated to helping you finish all the final details for camp. Squads, Participant Lists, Waiver and Release forms....they will be here to guide you through it all. They are ready to serve you this summer!
